

PUBLIC LEDGER

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1905

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

WHEN FATHER RODE THE GOAT
The house is full of arnica
And mystery profound;
We do not dare to run about
Or make the slightest sound:
We leave the big piano shut,
And do not strike a note:
The Doctor's been here seven times
Since father rode the goat.
He joined the Lodge a week ago—
Got in at 4 a. m.
And sixteen brethren brought him home.
Though he claims he brought them.
His wrist was sprained and one big rip
Had rent his Sunday coat.
There must have been a lively time
When father rode the goat.
He was resting on the couch today,
practicing his sign—ing signal, working zips,
her monkeyshines;
he mutters passwords "neath his breath,"
And other things he'll quote—
They surely had an evening's work
When father rode the goat.
He has a gorgeous uniform
All gold and red and blue;
A hat with plumes and yellow braid
And golden badges, too.
But somehow when we mention it
He wears a look so grim
We wonder if he rode the goat
Or if the goat rode him.

RIGDON—CHAIN.

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again, is a school day axiom strictly adhered to by these two youthful lovers on matrimony bent. Monday Mr. Albert Rigdon, aged 22, and Miss Gertrude Chain, aged 17, hailing from Manchester, applied at the County Clerk's office for a marriage license, but owing to the tender years of the would-be bride, were refused the much sought for document.

Not to be thwarted in their determination, they retraced their steps and after securing the written consent of the father properly acknowledged, they re-appeared on the following day and the license was granted.

They were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony in Judge C. D. Newell's most agreeable chamber and they went away happy as happy could be.

WADSWORTH—HOCKER.
Mr. Hocker and Miss Mamie Wadsworth, both of this city, were married at the Methodist Church, New York City, last night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Harker. The bride was attended by Misses Wadsworth and Hocker. The groom was attended by Mr. Harker. The couple will reside at the home of the bride's parents.

GUN HANDLING

Carelessness the Cause of Injury to a Little Girl

From the promiscuous and reckless manner in which boys and young men were allowed to handle and discharge revolvers and toy pistols Christmas eve and Christmas Day it is remarkable that so few escaped serious injury.

Among those now suffering from a pistol wound is little Maggie Reed, aged 10 years, a resident of Smoky Hollow, who was seriously wounded in the side Tuesday by the accidental discharge of a toy gun while in the hands of Collier Payne, a lad about 18 years old.

The boy had whittled a 22-caliber ball down to the size of his death dealer and while endeavoring to force it into the barrel the thing went off, with the result as above stated.

THE Times-Star's recent picture of Maysville's Government Building was all right. The trees give it a real country air.

THE new battleship Kearsarge is commanded by Captain HERBERT WINSLOW, son of the late Rear Admiral JOHN ANCRUM WINSLOW, who commanded the former Kearsarge when she defeated and sank the Confederate cruiser Alabama off Cherbourg, France, June 19th, 1864.

LAWYER ABEL HUMMEL is receiving considerable attention just now over receiving his just deserts for unworthy conduct as a member of an honored profession. In every city in this country there can be found one or more lawyers of the ABEL HUMMEL type, and it looks like a general regenerating throughout 1906 may find disbarment and prison bars for others of like ilk.—Louisville Times.

Just so. Prior to March, 1884, Cincinnati had one of HUMMEL's precise build. His name was TOM CAMPBELL. In that year, however, he was forced to flee the city to avoid the vengeance of an outraged populace, and he left by the light of a burning Courthouse. New York afforded him asylum for several years, where he took rank with the other Abe Hummels, and when GORBEL was murdered the Goebelites brought him to Kentucky to organize a campaign of Jury-packing and perjury for the conviction of innocent persons, with a fee of $5,000 for each "conviction." I am real glad that some people are at last indorsing all the good things that THE LEDGER said about TOM CAMPBELL while he was alive, and which it does not take back now that he is dead—and damned.

THE Czar with his Cossacks being unable to suppress the rioters in his Empire, he might call on the little Japs if he really wants somebody whipped.

UNDER the treaty between China and Japan, signed a few days ago at Peking, China consents to lease to Japan Liao Tung Peninsula at the Southern extremity, which includes Port Arthur and Dalny. This property formerly was held by Russia under lease from China. China concedes to Japan control of the railway on the peninsula Northward as far as Chang Chin. This is one of the spurs which connect with Russian China. The Siberian Railway System and the point named probably will mark the division between Russian and Japanese control.

China also concedes to Japan the right to build railways from Antung on the Yalu river to Mukden, the ancient capital of Manchuria, probably along the line of the famous old military or caravan road. It is provided, however, that at the end of a certain period the road may be purchased by China.

The most important of all provisions of the treaty is an article whereby China agrees to open to the world the commerce and trade of sixteen principal ports and cities in Manchuria, including Harbin, the modern Russian capital of the province and its most important railroad center, thus making, in the opinion of the State Department officials, the final success of the long struggle by the United States for the open door.

"Do you believe," queried the long-haired passenger, "that people will have the same vocations in the next world as they have in this?"

"No," replied the hardware drummer. "That would be impossible in many cases."

"Why do you think so?" asked the l. h. p.

"Because," explained the knight of the sample case, "there are quite a number of ice dealers in this world."

THE CHARITY BALL

Elegant Affair at Asylum of Maysville Commandery

A fitting end to the social calendar of 1905, the Charity Ball, given for sweet charity's sake by Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., has passed into history as the best effort that No. 10 has ever put forth in a function of this character.

This movement on the part of the Knights to give an entertainment which will lead much-needed assistance to the poor of our city, and at the same time offer a full measure of pleasure and relaxation to the donors, has met with great success up to this year, and it is the hope of those who attended the Ball that this last but not the least in the same direction.

In as successful a Ball next year. The moment one entered the Temple until with lagged steps they departed it was a continuous round of pleasure.

After giving one's wraps to the attendants in waiting, one was ushered to the Asylum, the most spacious and beautiful room in Maysville, where one was met with a most hospitable and courteous greeting by those who composed the Reception Committee, namely, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Browning, Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Smoot and Judge Garrett S. Wall.

When the earliest guest arrived Weber's Orchestra of Cincinnati had entered on a concert program that ranged from classic to veriest ragtime and which continued until about 9:30, when the "bangle call" brought all those who expected to "tread the measure" to their feet and the Grand March, led by Mr. Thomas A. Keith and Mrs. Richard Anderson of Lexington, was started.

Immediately upon the conclusion of the Grand March the dancing commenced.

Any one unacquainted with the perfect time and melody of Weber's music can hardly appreciate the inspiration that made the older persons supple and graceful and the youths like gazelles.

About 10:30 an announcement was made that refreshments were awaiting those who desired to partake.

The edibles served in the banquet hall were very delicious, consisting of substantial, ices and cake.

The dancing continued until 4 o'clock, when the tired but happy guests, after many expressions of the indebtedness of the Maysville public to the Knights of No. 10 for an evening of such unalloyed pleasure, departed for their homes.

The costumes worn by the ladies present were creations of great beauty, and the men present, were as follows—

The World's Jewish Population

Two hundred and fifty years ago the first party of Jews, fleeing from oppression in the old world, landed in America, and the anniversary of the event has been generally celebrated by Jews throughout the country. From this nucleus their numbers have grown until today there are, according to the Jewish Year Book for 1905, 1,127,268 Jews in the United States, or practically one-tenth of the total number of Jews in the world.

The Jewish population of the world, according to the same authority, is distributed as follows:

Country	Population	Country	Population
Russia	5,189,401	British Empire	276,614
Austria-Hungary	2,071,254	Roumania	276,493
United States	1,127,268	France	80,000
Germany	586,948	Italy	43,552
Turkey	359,000	Other countries	670,302

Strange as it may seem, there are only 78,000 Jews living in Palestine; New York has nearly half of the total number in the United States, Alabama claims 7,000, Georgia 6,135, Mississippi 3,000, and Florida a still smaller number. There are 95,000 Jews in Pennsylvania, 76,000 in Illinois, 60,000 in Massachusetts, and Missouri and Ohio each have 50,000. There are but 276,614 in the entire British Empire.

Statistics of the Immigration Bureau show that 60,000 Jewish immigrants arrive in this country annually, one-half of them coming from Russia, while one quarter of the total number of 15,000 come from Austria-Hungary.

In the industrial and commercial life of the world the Jews are important factors, and are particularly prominent in trade and finance. Industrious and prudent, they have made their influence felt in every city, town and hamlet of the land, and, as a race, are among the most progressive and public spirited of any who have sought an asylum in the Land of Liberty.

A newspaper correspondent recently found near Kimberley, South Africa, a diamond of 1494 carats that he sold for $13,455.

Matthew Fauls, a weaver of Kilmarnock, Scotland, has been at his loom eighty years. He is over 99 years old.

THE DUKE OF KILLCRANKIE.

The story of the play deals with the manner in which the young Duke of Killcrankie decays Lady Addison to an inaccessible castle in the Highlands, where, with the assistance of a member of Parliament and the rich widow of a glue king, he manages, after various trying but amusing situations, to win the fair Henrietta's consent to become his wife. Noted members of the cast will include Miss Minna Phillips, Mr. Wallace Erskine, Miss Harriet Neville, Martin Cody, Robert Cleary and others. "The Duke of Killcrankie" will be seen at the Washington Theatre tomorrow, December 29th, opening at Ray's.

The football season is closed and the record of casualties, as tabulated by The Chicago Tribune, shows a list of 18 killed and 159 injured.

The hunting season in Wisconsin and Michigan is closed, and the casualty list shows 26 killed and 55 wounded, some of whom will not recover. The complete record of casualties since July shows 70 killed and 69 wounded. The automobile season is a continuous one. In the principal cities of the United States these machines have killed, since the year began, 66 persons and nine in smaller places, and injured 463 persons in cities and 46 in villages, a total of 76 killed and 509 injured in 11 months.

BIRTHS.

WILLETT.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. King Willett of Lee street, yesterday at 1 o'clock, a fine daughter—Gipsy. It was quite apparent to the patrons who visited the New Central last evening that something out of the ordinary had happened in the Willett household, judging from the reckless manner in which King was dispensing smiles and bouquets.

The clever cigar rollers of Seville have rivals in the Willett world. By the aid of its tiny feet the weevil rolls vine leaves into a cylindrical shape and hides itself inside.

POPULAR GOVERNOR BRADLEY
Hated and Villified By Pie Peddlers—Big, Brainy, Eloquent Orator and Leader

W. O. Bradley has always been the most popular man the Republicans of Kentucky have produced since the war. He has the unique distinction of being the only Republican who was ever undisputedly elected to the office of Governor. Despite the animosities growing out of various clashes with the Democrats, no Republican is as popular with them as he is.

In fact, this big, brainy, eloquent orator and leader is popular everywhere except with the pie-peddling Ernst-Yerkes Federal office holders' machine and at the White House where a just President is unjust to the people's favorite.

The extent to which the machine carries its hatred was beautifully displayed the other day when a fake report was sent out from Louisville stating that Bradley had the Congressional bee in his bonnet and desired to run for Congress in the Fifth District.

The wish was the father of the lie. The machine wished with all its heart that Bradley would run.

Umph! Wouldn't it even up old scores then! My, but wouldn't it show President Roosevelt how right he was when he neglected the former Governor and turned a willing ear to the bunch of small-fry politicians, no one of whom was ever elected to office by the people of Kentucky, and no one of whom was ever to the forefront when the people's liberties were at stake, but instead were skulking in the background, arranging with the Democrats for protection to corporation interests.

Oh, yes, they hoped Bradley would run! In the first place the Democratic machine would lay one of its beautiful plans to steal the election.

And finally and most important, the Republican machine would pass out the word quietly, and hundreds of Republicans would either vote the Democratic ticket or else stay away from the polls.

Result, Bradley buried beneath an avalanche of votes, with the Republican machinists triumphantly saying to the President: "See how strong he is."

But, unfortunately for them, Bradley has no intention of giving up his law practice merely to furnish them with a little exercise. He has put down the lie with a plain statement, and the machinists will have to find some new scheme of getting even with Bradley for being the most popular Republican in the state; popular even though without a pull at the White House; popular even though not in office; popular even though not passing out pie to the faithful.
